

Please leave the current ban on cell/mobile/wireless communication in place. We are already seeing signs going up in banks, post offices and stores, asking people to discontinue their cell phone conversations whilst on the premises. A lot of people use the time on a flight to sleep/rest and phone conversations are not respectful of that desire.

Thank you for providing this opportunity to make a comment.

Ken Richards